

MANIFESTO
by Papo Colo, 2008

Chaos is the payback...for arrogance.
Glory is never there...because it is in other places.
So where are we going, with this disappearing wonder,
condescending into a moment of confusion?
With the collective solitude of patriotism?
What are nations if not walls that become a labyrinth?

LOOSE THOUGHTS
by Juana Gallo, 2008

The world economy is in trouble and we have to resolve this situation from the Americas point of view, collectively and soon. Nations are dying, continents will be unified, the bankers culture will refine its repression and the marginal will grow into an explosion. And there we are with more time to worry about vanity, investment and decoration.

Text for the exhibition at Exit Art NY
THE LABYRINTH WALL: FROM MYTHOLOGY TO REALITY
12/14/2008 – 02/07/2009